The United States Signs a Stronger Trade Agreement with Mexico and Canada

"This new deal will be the most modern, up-to-date, and balanced trade agreement in the history of our country, with the most advanced protections for workers ever developed." – President Donald J. Trump

REBALANCING OUR TRADE RELATIONSHIP: President Donald J. Trump kept his promise to deliver a modern and rebalanced trade deal to replace NAFTA.

- Today in Argentina, the United States is joining Canada and Mexico to sign a new trade agreement that will better serve the interests of American workers and businesses.
 - This follows the President's announcement in October that a deal had been reached.

- The new United States–Mexico–Canada Agreement (USMCA) will replace the outdated, failed North American Free Trade Agreement (NAFTA).
- With the signing of this agreement, President Trump has delivered on his promise to renegotiate NAFTA and protect American farmers, ranchers, businesses, and workers.

SECURING A STRONGER DEAL FOR AMERICAN INDUSTRIES AND WORKERS:
USMCA is a stronger deal for American farmers, ranchers, businesses, and workers.

- USMCA will help incentivize billions of dollars in additional vehicle and auto parts production in the United States.
- The agreement includes updated rules of origin that require 75 percent of auto content to be produced in North America.
- American autoworkers will benefit from rules that incentivize the use of high-wage manufacturing labor in the auto sector.
 - This includes a requirement that 40-45% of a vehicle consist of content manufactured by North American workers making at least $16 per hour.
- USMCA’s labor and environment chapters are fully enforceable and represent the strongest labor and environmental provisions of any trade agreement ever negotiated.
 - Mexico agreed to historic labor reforms to provide for genuine collective bargaining.
 - The agreement prohibits the importation of goods produced by forced labor.
- The agreement includes provisions that allow agriculture products to be traded more fairly.
 - Canada will end its “Class 6” and “Class 7” programs that allow low-priced dairy products to undersell American dairy producers.
 - Canada will increase market access for United States dairy products, eggs, and poultry.

REFORMING TRADE FOR THE 21ST CENTURY: USMCA modernizes our trade relationship with Canada and Mexico to reflect the realities of the 21st century.

- The new agreement includes a modernized chapter that provides stronger and more comprehensive intellectual property protections than any prior United States trade agreement.
 - These protections are vital to promoting innovation and economic growth.
 - USMCA includes robust copyright protection, 10 years of data protection for biologic drugs, and new protections against the theft of trade secrets.
- USMCA includes the strongest digital trade and financial services provisions of any United States trade agreement.
 - New rules ensure that data can be transferred cross-border and that limits on where data can be stored are minimized.
- USMCA will cut red tape at the border, streamline trade, and reduce regulatory uncertainty.
- The agreement includes a currency chapter that will help reinforce transparency and stability.

Subject: WH IGA: President Trump Signs Executive Order Strengthening Buy American

White House Office of Intergovernmental Affairs

Subject: What You Need To Know | President Trump Supports Opening The Government Now That Democrats Will Negotiate On Barrier Funding

White House Office of Intergovernmental Affairs

President Trump supports reopening the Government now that many Democrats have finally agreed to negotiate on border security and barrier funding. While we hope that Congress finds a solution in the next three weeks, the President will continue to keep all options on the table. Dozens of rank-and-file Democrats have reached out to the Administration and signaled they are willing to provide wall funding if the Government reopens. The President made a good-faith offer, and there is real opportunity to accomplish objectives that both parties want. Below you will find additional information.

What You Need To Know | President Trump Supports Opening The Government Now That Democrats Will Negotiate On Barrier Funding

President Trump supports reopening the government now that Democrats have finally agreed to negotiate on border security, including barrier funding.

- The President remains firmly committed to a barrier, including $5.7 billion in funding.
- Pelosi and the Democrats were originally unwilling to give $1 to a barrier but are now willing to negotiate.
- The President will continue to keep all options on the table, including declaration of a national emergency.
- The President will continue to defend the American people, address this humanitarian crisis, and protect our southern border.

It is up to Democrats to stop obstructing and do their part to secure the border and protect America.

- The President made a good faith offer and finally Democrats have agreed to negotiate as the President has asked since the beginning.
- Dozens of rank-and-file Democrats have reached out to the Administration and signaled they are willing to provide barrier funding if the government reopens.
- Congress has one more chance to work together, negotiate, and address the security and humanitarian crisis on the border.

Because of the President's actions, federal workers will be paid in the next few days.

- Congress should reopen the government immediately. Federal workers have suffered and our borders remain open because Democrats have refused to negotiate.
- We thank the public servants who have worked without pay and those who have been furloughed.

- Thankfully with President Trump's leadership we were able to secure all of your back pay which will be coming soon.

Many prominent Democrats have said they support barriers on our Southern border.

- Sen. Dick Durbin (D-IL): "I can tell you we have had fencing in the past and I'm sure we will in the future."
- Sen. Angus King (I-ME): "There are places along the border where wall makes sense" And "Everybody is for border security. The question is, let's do it in a rational, economic, sensible way. There are places where wall makes sense ..."
- Sen. Jeff Merkley (D-OR): "Some fencing has uses. Some barriers are useful."
- Sen. Ben Cardin (D-MD): "Certainly you need barriers and we support barriers."
- Sen. Mark Warner (D-VA): "I know we're going to have to add additional border security.... We've got about 700 miles of existing fencing. Where folks say we need additional barrier protections, I'm all for it."
- Sen. Chris Coons (D-DE): "I personally don't think that a border wall is in and of itself immoral."
- Rep. Hakeem Jeffries (D-NY): "There are areas along the border where there are currently fences that are put up or barriers that are put up that need to be enhanced."
- Rep. Eric Swalwell (D-CA): "Increase Border Patrol agents. Increase enforcement of overstay of visas. Increase use of technology and yes fencing where there are vulnerabilities."
- Rep. Cheri Bustos (D-IL): "If we have a partial wall. If we have fencing. If we have technology used to keep our border safe. All of that is fine."
- Rep. Steny Hoyer (D-MD) When asked about a wall working responds "Obviously they work".
- Rep. Debbie Dingell (D-MI): "You would be surprised at the amount of money people are willing to put into border security and it would contain many things. ... If there are places that some kind of barrier should be part of it, then that's part of it."
- Asked if the Democratic House leadership is willing to spend $5.7 billion on a wall or border security, House Majority Whip Jim Clyburn (D-SC): "We may be, so as long as there's supporting evidence that that's what's required."

Subject: WH IGA: President Donald J. Trump's Plan to Reopen the Government and Fund Border Security

White House Office of Intergovernmental Affairs

State and Local Elected Officials,

As a follow-up to President Donald Trump's remarks, please find the below Fact Sheet outlining the Administration's plan to reopen the government and fund border security.

Thank you,

The White House Office of Intergovernmental Affairs

PRESIDENT DONALD J. TRUMP'S PLAN TO REOPEN THE GOVERNMENT AND FUND BORDER SECURITY

"To every member of Congress: Pass a bill that ends this crisis. To every citizen: Call Congress and tell them to finally, after all of these decades, secure our border. This is a choice between right and wrong, justice and injustice. This is about whether we fulfill our sacred duty to the American citizens we serve." – President Donald J. Trump

PRESIDENTIAL LEADERSHIP: President Donald J. Trump is showing strong leadership by working with Congress to find a solution to reopen our government and secure the border.

- The President is solving the decades old problem of border security.
- The negotiation team tasked by President Trump has been working with Republicans and Democrats to find a compromise to reopen the government while providing border security.

- The President is bringing together the best ideas from both sides to come up with solution to a complex problem.

RESPONSIBLE GOVERNMENT FUNDING: The bipartisan and common sense legislation proposed by President Trump will reopen our government and secure the border.

- $5.7 billion to fund a steel barrier system, including embedded investments in technology and roads, on our southern border in the priority areas cited by Border Patrol.
 - This is in addition to the more than 115 miles of barriers already built, replaced, or contracted under President Trump.
- $805 million for technology, canines, and personnel to help stop the flow of illegal drugs, weapons and other contraband. This includes:
 - $675 million for drug detection inspection technology to help secure our ports of entry.
 - $130 million for canine units, training, personnel and portable scanners to help deter and detect smuggled narcotics, weapons, and other dangerous materials.
- $800 million dollars in humanitarian assistance, medical support, and new temporary housing.
- $782 million to hire an additional 2,750 border agents, law enforcement officers, and staff.
- $563 million to support our immigration court system, including hiring 75 new immigration judge teams to reduce the immigration court backlog of 800,000 cases.

BIPARTISAN SOLUTION: As part of President Trump's willingness to compromise to reopen the government, he is proposing to grant provisional status to current DACA and Temporary Protected Status (TPS) recipients.

- Provisional status will be granted for three years for current DACA recipients, covering 700,000 illegal immigrants brought here by their parents at a young age.
 - This status will give them access to work permits, social security numbers, and protection from deportation.
- Provisional status will be granted to certain current TPS recipients for three years, providing 300,000 immigrants whose protected status is facing expiration more certainty as Congress works on a larger immigration deal.

IMMEDIATE CRISIS: President Trump's proposal would solve the immediate security and humanitarian crisis at our southern border, but would not solve all of our immigration challenges.

- America faces an immediate humanitarian crisis from our unsecured border.
 - According to a 2017 Doctors Without Borders Report, more than 30 percent of women are sexually assaulted on the trek to the border.
 - On average, the United States Border Patrol refers approximately 50 individuals to a hospital or medical provider, including children who cross the border in need of medical attention.
 - The number of families and unaccompanied children crossing the border illegally has grown dramatically in recent months. This past December, Border Patrol apprehended 32,284 families and unaccompanied children. Just six months prior, Border Patrol apprehended only 13,164 families and unaccompanied children.
- The country still faces serious immigration issues that need a permanent solution, including interior enforcement, asylum reform, worksite verification, the 11 million people living in the country unlawfully, and moving toward a merit-based immigration system.
 - Once the government is open and the immediate crisis is addressed, President Trump will hold weekly bipartisan meetings to reform our immigration system.

What You Need To Know | President Trump Has Put a Deal on the Table to Reopen the Government and Secure the Southern Border

"I campaigned on Border Security, which you cannot have without a strong and powerful Wall. Our Southern Border has long been an "Open Wound," where drugs, criminals (including human traffickers) and illegals would pour into our Country."— President Donald J. Trump

CRISIS AT THE BORDER: President Trump continues to stress the need to pass legislation that will address the security and humanitarian crises on our Southern Border.

- The United States Southern Border is overwhelmed with illegal immigration, gang violence, crime, drugs, and human trafficking.
- President Trump has requested a modest amount of funding to address these issues while Democrats continue to resist in the name of politics.
- We cannot keep our country safe without adequate funding for Border security, including a physical barrier and increased in funding for law enforcement.

BORDER SECURITY AND HUMANITARIAN PRIORITIES: Any government funding bill must address the crises on our Southern Border. The Administration has requested additional funds to address these priorities.

- $5.7 billion for construction of a steel barrier on the Southern Border to fund 234 miles of new physical barrier—an increase of $4.1 billion over the Committee bill.
- $675 million to deter and detect narcotics, weapons, and other materials that pose a threat to the United States—an increase of $631 million over the Committee bill.
 - Will provide Non-Intrusive Inspection technology for all incoming vehicle lanes of traffic at U.S. Southwest Border Land Ports of Entry, as well as necessary canine and other support.
- $211 million to hire 750 additional Border Patrol agents in order to keep our borders safe and secure—an increase of $100 million over the Committee bill.
- $800 million to fund enhanced medical support, transportation, consumable supplies, and additional temporary facilities necessary to ensure the well-being of those taken into custody.

IMMIGRATION ENFORCEMENT: Congress must fund additional immigration detention beds and law enforcement personnel.

- $571 million for 2,000 additional Immigration and Customs Enforcement personnel to enforce immigration laws, combat gang violence, catch drug smugglers and stop human traffickers.
 - $4.2 billion to support 52,000 detention beds, personnel, alternatives to detention, and transportation to address the recent surge in illegal immigration across the Southern Border—an increase of $798 million over the Committee bill.
 - At least $563 million for 75 additional Immigration judges and support staff to reduce the backlog of pending immigration cases.
 - President Trump will work with Congress to facilitate expanded in-country processing of refugee claims.

ICYMI | President Trump Sends a Letter on Border Security to Congress

On January 4, President Trump sent a letter to Members of Congress on the need to secure the border. The President also attached a presentation from Secretary of Homeland Security Kirstjen Nielsen, which is outlined below.

- You can view a copy of the letter by clicking here: President Trump Sends a Letter on Border Security to Congress
- You can view a copy of the presentation by clicking here: A Border Security and Humanitarian Crisis

As the presentation makes clear, current funding levels, resources, and authorities are woefully inadequate to meet the scope of the problem. We are no longer in a status quo situation at the Southern Border but in a crisis situation. Status quo funding is not enough.

- In fiscal year (FY) 2018, 17,000 adults at the border with existing criminal records were arrested by Customs and Border Protection (CBP) and border agents.
- In FY2017 and FY2018, ICE officers arrested approximately 235,000 aliens on various criminal charges or convictions within the interior of the United States—including roughly 100,000 for assault, 30,000 for sex crimes, and 4,000 for homicides.
- We are now averaging 60,000 illegal and inadmissible aliens a month on our Southern Border.
- Last month alone, more than 20,000 minors were smuggled into the United States.
- The immigration court backlog is nearly 800,000 cases.
- There has been a 2,000 percent increase in asylum claims over the last five years, with the largest growth coming from Central America—while around 9 in 10 claims from Central American migrants are ultimately rejected by the immigration courts, the applicant has long since been released into the interior of the United States.
- In FY2017, roughly 135,000 illegal and inadmissible family units arrived from Central America. Of those, less than 2 percent have been successfully removed from the country due to a shortage of resources and glaring loopholes in our federal laws.
- So far in FY2019, we have seen a 280 percent increase in family units from FY2018.
- 300 Americans are killed every week from heroin—90 percent of which floods across our Southern Border.
- Illegal immigration is a humanitarian crisis: 1 in 3 migrant women is sexually assaulted on the journey northward to the U.S. border; 50 illegal migrants a day are referred for emergency medical care; and CBP rescues 4,300 people a year who are in danger and distress.

What You Need To Know | By the Numbers: The Urgent Border Crisis Facing Our Nation

As Democrats in Congress refuse to provide funding to secure the border, we continue to face an urgent crisis of illegal immigration.

- Over 60,000 migrants have arrived at our border each of the last three months.
- Of those 60,000, around 85% illegally crossed our border and 15% presented themselves at a port of entry without documents.

Loopholes in our immigration system are enticing more and more illegal alien minors and families to flood to our southern border.

- In recent years, we have seen a staggering increase in the percentage of illegal alien minors and illegal alien families crossing our border.
- Up until 2012, over 90% of arrivals were single adults and the vast majority were from Mexico.
 - In December, family unit aliens and unaccompanied alien minors made up just under two-thirds (65%) of all crossings.
- Last year family unit aliens and unaccompanied alien minors made up 40% of all crossings, far surpassing the previous record of 28%.

Customs and Border Protection is encountering a growing number of children at the border and continues to refer a large number for medical care.

- Customs and Border Protection encountered an estimated 22,000 children last month.
 - Of those 22,000, more 4,000 of them were 5 and under.
- Border Patrol is referring approximately 50 cases a day to medical providers.
 - Border Patrol referred more than 80 cases to a medical provider just on December 26th.
- From December 22 through December 30, Border Patrol referred 451 cases to a medical provider, the majority of whom were children.
 - Border Patrol referred 259 children to a medical provider.
 - 129 under the age of 5, 88 between the ages of 6 and 14, and 42 between the ages of 15 to 17.

Select Quotes from Local Leaders

State House Speaker McCutcheon (AL): “I fully support President Trump's strong and aggressive effort to protect our country's interests by securing funding for a wall along our southern border. Until we stop countless illegal immigrants from casually jumping the border, our national security will remain compromised, innocent lives will be lost to human trafficking, and the flood of drugs will continue destroying our children's futures. Those in Congress who oppose the funding should stop playing partisan games and set aside their petty personal disputes with the administration. I join millions of my fellow Alabamians in standing with President Trump & demanding that Congress provide the necessary funding today.”

State Senator Phil Berger (NY): “A country with no borders isn't really a country, and right now our borders aren't effective. I support @POTUS efforts to build a wall.”

State Representative Niraj Antani (OH): Having been born in the United States as the son of legal immigrants who followed the law to come to this country and become citizens, I appreciate President Trump's effort to secure our southern border. In Ohio, our citizens are dying every day from fentanyl that is smuggled through the border. We must support President Trump's push to build the wall and help end the fentanyl epidemic."

Mayor Crystal Ruiz (San Jacinto, CA): "@RealDonaldTrump @POTUS is fighting. #BuildTheWall #AmericaFirst."

City Councilman Paul Walker (Manistique, MI): "Attention @TheDemocrats its time to put our Nation's border security above politics → @FUND THE WALL → @SenSchumer @SenStabenow @NancyPelosi @SenGaryPeters #FundTheWall #BuildTheWall #TrumpShutdown. Season Greetings @realDonaldTrump don't give in on #BuildThatWall! Your supporters are depending on you to secure on our borders. #BorderSecurity."

Mayor Hal Marx (Petal, MS) Mayor Hal Marx: "The GOP caving on funding the Wall has energized the conservative base like nothing since the #TeaParty in 2010. I hope this fight reminds Republican voters that we don't need more squishy moderates, we need true conservatives! #BuildTheWall."

Mayor Troy Edgar (Los Alimitos, CA): "Thanks President @realDonaldTrump for standing firm on Border Security! There are many here in California that appreciate your efforts and understand your negotiation approach to reaching a deal with Congress."

Mayor Dennis Kintigh (Roswell, NM): "As the Mayor of a City near our southern border and as a retired FBI agent I fully support the President's effort to secure our borders. I hope Congress will work with the Administration to protect the safety of all Americans."

Mayor John Giles (Mesa, AZ): "All of us in elected office have the fundamental duty of passing a budget and keeping the government running. There should be bipartisan dialogue and compromise in DC that avoids a shutdown, while approving fiscally responsible border security. @WhiteHouse @SenSchumer."

Sheriff Sam Page (Rockingham County, NC): "I support President Trump in his efforts to work with our Congress to fund the Border wall and Border security initiatives. A border wall from a public safety perspective provides a barrier to protect America from Drug traffickers, Criminals and others that choose to harm our American citizens."

Sheriff Thomas Hodgson (MA): "The people of our nation and the Sheriffs who have promised to protect them and uphold our law cannot wait any longer for Congress to fund the wall and secure our borders so we can keep our neighborhoods safe from criminal illegal aliens. For decades, Congress has traded the safety and security of our citizen and legal residents, and undermined the efforts of law enforcement, by choosing to not act on comprehensive immigration reforms and border security in order to advance individual political agendas. Enough is enough. Congress must act now on the funding for the border wall. Failure to do so will confirm once again Congress Members' total disregard for families who continued to be victimized by criminal illegal aliens. Almost every day, someone dies at the hands of an illegal alien, and dangerous drugs keep pouring across our borders and into our communities. It's time for members of Congress to side with the American people. It's time for Members of Congress to protect the American people and help law enforcement make communities and neighborhoods safer places to live, work and raise a family. It's time for Members of Congress to put aside their political agendas."

Sheriff Darren Campbell (Iredell County, NC): “As the elected Sheriff of Iredell County which is located in North Carolina. I have over 25 years of law enforcement experience. I consistently everyday see the impact of illegal immigration and the crime that it can spawn for example just this week we arrested two persons who are here illegally they were arrested on trafficking in methamphetamine charges, this is only the most recent. I urge you to support President Trump in providing funding for the border wall and border security.

Opportunity Zones Background

Opportunity Zones, created by the 2017 Tax Cuts and Jobs Act, were designed to spur investment in distressed communities throughout the country through tax benefits. Under a nomination process completed in June, 8,761 communities in all 50 states, the District of Columbia and five U.S. territories were designated as qualified Opportunity Zones. Opportunity Zones retain their designation for 10 years. Investors may defer tax on almost any capital gain up to Dec. 31, 2026 by making an appropriate investment in a zone, making an election after December 21, 2017, and meeting other requirements.

In November, the U.S. Department of the Treasury and the IRS released proposed regulations on Opportunity Zones designed to incentivize investment in American communities. The Treasury Department plans on issuing additional guidance before the end of the year after notice and comment.

Re: Deportation of Vietnam War Refugees

Dear President Trump:

As Vietnamese-American elected officials representing the largest Vietnamese community outside of Vietnam, we are writing to share our concerns about the possible deportation of Vietnam War refugees.

Deporting Vietnam War refugees will have a severe and irreversible human impact. After the Vietnam War, American families opened their homes to 1.3 million Vietnamese families, like our own, who are now an integral part of the economy and social fabric of this nation. Since that time, the United States has maintained a policy that provides those escaping Communism from Vietnam and other Southeast Asian countries would be provided asylum and eventually permanent residency status in the United States. Without this asylum policy, Vietnamese who fled before normalization would be turned over to and be victimized by the oppressive regime that still claims Vietnam to this day.

Like you, we recognize that national security comes first, but prior immigration policies were implemented with particular recognition of the unique circumstances that Southeast Asian refugees face. When returned to their countries of origin, these refugees would be blacklisted and denied basic human rights. This is not a perceived threat; it is, in fact, a national policy of the government of Vietnam. While violent criminals who have shown an unwillingness to rehabilitate themselves should be deported, the vast majority of the group who would be affected by the new policy are productive members of our community, who have paid their price to society and remade their lives with families and careers. Requiring these thousands of refugees, who have made mistakes in the past, and their families to be condemned one again to a lifetime of poverty and recrimination is the human impact we cannot ignore.

If arriving in the U.S. at an early age, these refugees would be "returned" to countries they never really knew and would make them victims of exploitation and abuse. We believe a thoughtful evaluation process that would take into account the successful rehabilitation of these refugees would go a long way in addressing the humanitarian tragedy that would surely befall people who have suffered greatly throughout their lives by events that were out of their control.

As Vietnamese political refugees who have become a County Supervisor and a California State Assemblyman, we are examples of how immigrants give back to this great country we call home. We ask that you reconsider your policy regarding the repatriation of former Vietnamese refugees.

If we can assist you with any further information in this matter, please do not hesitate to contact us at (714) 834-3110 or andrew.do@ocgov.com; 714-843-4966 or tyler.diep@asm.ca.gov.

The United States Signs a Stronger Trade Agreement with Mexico and Canada

"This new deal will be the most modern, up-to-date, and balanced trade agreement in the history of our country, with the most advanced protections for workers ever developed." – President Donald J. Trump

REBALANCING OUR TRADE RELATIONSHIP: President Donald J. Trump kept his promise to deliver a modern and rebalanced trade deal to replace NAFTA.

- Today in Argentina, the United States is joining Canada and Mexico to sign a new trade agreement that will better serve the interests of American workers and businesses.
 - This follows the President's announcement in October that a deal had been reached.

- The new United States–Mexico–Canada Agreement (USMCA) will replace the outdated, failed North American Free Trade Agreement (NAFTA).
- With the signing of this agreement, President Trump has delivered on his promise to renegotiate NAFTA and protect American farmers, ranchers, businesses, and workers.

SECURING A STRONGER DEAL FOR AMERICAN INDUSTRIES AND WORKERS:
USMCA is a stronger deal for American farmers, ranchers, businesses, and workers.

- USMCA will help incentivize billions of dollars in additional vehicle and auto parts production in the United States.
- The agreement includes updated rules of origin that require 75 percent of auto content to be produced in North America.
- American autoworkers will benefit from rules that incentivize the use of high-wage manufacturing labor in the auto sector.
 - This includes a requirement that 40-45% of a vehicle consist of content manufactured by North American workers making at least $16 per hour.
- USMCA’s labor and environment chapters are fully enforceable and represent the strongest labor and environmental provisions of any trade agreement ever negotiated.
 - Mexico agreed to historic labor reforms to provide for genuine collective bargaining.
 - The agreement prohibits the importation of goods produced by forced labor.
- The agreement includes provisions that allow agriculture products to be traded more fairly.
 - Canada will end its “Class 6” and “Class 7” programs that allow low-priced dairy products to undersell American dairy producers.
 - Canada will increase market access for United States dairy products, eggs, and poultry.

REFORMING TRADE FOR THE 21ST CENTURY: USMCA modernizes our trade relationship with Canada and Mexico to reflect the realities of the 21st century.

- The new agreement includes a modernized chapter that provides stronger and more comprehensive intellectual property protections than any prior United States trade agreement.
 - These protections are vital to promoting innovation and economic growth.
 - USMCA includes robust copyright protection, 10 years of data protection for biologic drugs, and new protections against the theft of trade secrets.
- USMCA includes the strongest digital trade and financial services provisions of any United States trade agreement.
 - New rules ensure that data can be transferred cross-border and that limits on where data can be stored are minimized.
- USMCA will cut red tape at the border, streamline trade, and reduce regulatory uncertainty.
- The agreement includes a currency chapter that will help reinforce transparency and stability.

- American steel and aluminum jobs are coming back following President Trump's tariffs to protect domestic industries that are vital to national security.

Subject: What You Need To Know | President Trump Supports Opening The Government Now That Democrats Will Negotiate On Barrier Funding

White House Office of Intergovernmental Affairs

President Trump supports reopening the Government now that many Democrats have finally agreed to negotiate on border security and barrier funding. While we hope that Congress finds a solution in the next three weeks, the President will continue to keep all options on the table. Dozens of rank-and-file Democrats have reached out to the Administration and signaled they are willing to provide wall funding if the Government reopens. The President made a good-faith offer, and there is real opportunity to accomplish objectives that both parties want. Below you will find additional information.

What You Need To Know | President Trump Supports Opening The Government Now That Democrats Will Negotiate On Barrier Funding

President Trump supports reopening the government now that Democrats have finally agreed to negotiate on border security, including barrier funding.

- The President remains firmly committed to a barrier, including $5.7 billion in funding.
- Pelosi and the Democrats were originally unwilling to give $1 to a barrier but are now willing to negotiate.
- The President will continue to keep all options on the table, including declaration of a national emergency.
- The President will continue to defend the American people, address this humanitarian crisis, and protect our southern border.

It is up to Democrats to stop obstructing and do their part to secure the border and protect America.

- The President made a good faith offer and finally Democrats have agreed to negotiate as the President has asked since the beginning.
- Dozens of rank-and-file Democrats have reached out to the Administration and signaled they are willing to provide barrier funding if the government reopens.
- Congress has one more chance to work together, negotiate, and address the security and humanitarian crisis on the border.

Because of the President's actions, federal workers will be paid in the next few days.

- Congress should reopen the government immediately. Federal workers have suffered and our borders remain open because Democrats have refused to negotiate.
- We thank the public servants who have worked without pay and those who have been furloughed.

- Thankfully with President Trump's leadership we were able to secure all of your back pay which will be coming soon.

Many prominent Democrats have said they support barriers on our Southern border.

- Sen. Dick Durbin (D-IL): "I can tell you we have had fencing in the past and I'm sure we will in the future."
- Sen. Angus King (I-ME): "There are places along the border where wall makes sense" And "Everybody is for border security. The question is, let's do it in a rational, economic, sensible way. There are places where wall makes sense ..."
- Sen. Jeff Merkley (D-OR): "Some fencing has uses. Some barriers are useful."
- Sen. Ben Cardin (D-MD): "Certainly you need barriers and we support barriers."
- Sen. Mark Warner (D-VA): "I know we're going to have to add additional border security.... We've got about 700 miles of existing fencing. Where folks say we need additional barrier protections, I'm all for it."
- Sen. Chris Coons (D-DE): "I personally don't think that a border wall is in and of itself immoral."
- Rep. Hakeem Jeffries (D-NY): "There are areas along the border where there are currently fences that are put up or barriers that are put up that need to be enhanced."
- Rep. Eric Swalwell (D-CA): "Increase Border Patrol agents. Increase enforcement of overstay of visas. Increase use of technology and yes fencing where there are vulnerabilities."
- Rep. Cheri Bustos (D-IL): "If we have a partial wall. If we have fencing. If we have technology used to keep our border safe. All of that is fine."
- Rep. Steny Hoyer (D-MD) When asked about a wall working responds "Obviously they work".
- Rep. Debbie Dingell (D-MI): "You would be surprised at the amount of money people are willing to put into border security and it would contain many things. ... If there are places that some kind of barrier should be part of it, then that's part of it."
- Asked if the Democratic House leadership is willing to spend $5.7 billion on a wall or border security, House Majority Whip Jim Clyburn (D-SC): "We may be, so as long as there's supporting evidence that that's what's required."

Subject: WH IGA: President Donald J. Trump's Plan to Reopen the Government and Fund Border Security

White House Office of Intergovernmental Affairs

State and Local Elected Officials,

As a follow-up to President Donald Trump's remarks, please find the below Fact Sheet outlining the Administration's plan to reopen the government and fund border security.

Thank you,

The White House Office of Intergovernmental Affairs

PRESIDENT DONALD J. TRUMP'S PLAN TO REOPEN THE GOVERNMENT AND FUND BORDER SECURITY

"To every member of Congress: Pass a bill that ends this crisis. To every citizen: Call Congress and tell them to finally, after all of these decades, secure our border. This is a choice between right and wrong, justice and injustice. This is about whether we fulfill our sacred duty to the American citizens we serve." – President Donald J. Trump

PRESIDENTIAL LEADERSHIP: President Donald J. Trump is showing strong leadership by working with Congress to find a solution to reopen our government and secure the border.

- The President is solving the decades old problem of border security.
- The negotiation team tasked by President Trump has been working with Republicans and Democrats to find a compromise to reopen the government while providing border security.

- The President is bringing together the best ideas from both sides to come up with solution to a complex problem.

RESPONSIBLE GOVERNMENT FUNDING: The bipartisan and common sense legislation proposed by President Trump will reopen our government and secure the border.

- $5.7 billion to fund a steel barrier system, including embedded investments in technology and roads, on our southern border in the priority areas cited by Border Patrol.
 - This is in addition to the more than 115 miles of barriers already built, replaced, or contracted under President Trump.
- $805 million for technology, canines, and personnel to help stop the flow of illegal drugs, weapons and other contraband. This includes:
 - $675 million for drug detection inspection technology to help secure our ports of entry.
 - $130 million for canine units, training, personnel and portable scanners to help deter and detect smuggled narcotics, weapons, and other dangerous materials.
- $800 million dollars in humanitarian assistance, medical support, and new temporary housing.
- $782 million to hire an additional 2,750 border agents, law enforcement officers, and staff.
- $563 million to support our immigration court system, including hiring 75 new immigration judge teams to reduce the immigration court backlog of 800,000 cases.

BIPARTISAN SOLUTION: As part of President Trump's willingness to compromise to reopen the government, he is proposing to grant provisional status to current DACA and Temporary Protected Status (TPS) recipients.

- Provisional status will be granted for three years for current DACA recipients, covering 700,000 illegal immigrants brought here by their parents at a young age.
 - This status will give them access to work permits, social security numbers, and protection from deportation.
- Provisional status will be granted to certain current TPS recipients for three years, providing 300,000 immigrants whose protected status is facing expiration more certainty as Congress works on a larger immigration deal.

IMMEDIATE CRISIS: President Trump's proposal would solve the immediate security and humanitarian crisis at our southern border, but would not solve all of our immigration challenges.

- America faces an immediate humanitarian crisis from our unsecured border.
 - According to a 2017 Doctors Without Borders Report, more than 30 percent of women are sexually assaulted on the trek to the border.
 - On average, the United States Border Patrol refers approximately 50 individuals to a hospital or medical provider, including children who cross the border in need of medical attention.
 - The number of families and unaccompanied children crossing the border illegally has grown dramatically in recent months. This past December, Border Patrol apprehended 32,284 families and unaccompanied children. Just six months prior, Border Patrol apprehended only 13,164 families and unaccompanied children.
- The country still faces serious immigration issues that need a permanent solution, including interior enforcement, asylum reform, worksite verification, the 11 million people living in the country unlawfully, and moving toward a merit-based immigration system.
 - Once the government is open and the immediate crisis is addressed, President Trump will hold weekly bipartisan meetings to reform our immigration system.

What You Need To Know | President Trump Has Put a Deal on the Table to Reopen the Government and Secure the Southern Border

"I campaigned on Border Security, which you cannot have without a strong and powerful Wall. Our Southern Border has long been an "Open Wound," where drugs, criminals (including human traffickers) and illegals would pour into our Country."— President Donald J. Trump

CRISIS AT THE BORDER: President Trump continues to stress the need to pass legislation that will address the security and humanitarian crises on our Southern Border.

- The United States Southern Border is overwhelmed with illegal immigration, gang violence, crime, drugs, and human trafficking.
- President Trump has requested a modest amount of funding to address these issues while Democrats continue to resist in the name of politics.
- We cannot keep our country safe without adequate funding for Border security, including a physical barrier and increased in funding for law enforcement.

BORDER SECURITY AND HUMANITARIAN PRIORITIES: Any government funding bill must address the crises on our Southern Border. The Administration has requested additional funds to address these priorities.

- $5.7 billion for construction of a steel barrier on the Southern Border to fund 234 miles of new physical barrier—an increase of $4.1 billion over the Committee bill.
- $675 million to deter and detect narcotics, weapons, and other materials that pose a threat to the United States—an increase of $631 million over the Committee bill.
 - Will provide Non-Intrusive Inspection technology for all incoming vehicle lanes of traffic at U.S. Southwest Border Land Ports of Entry, as well as necessary canine and other support.
- $211 million to hire 750 additional Border Patrol agents in order to keep our borders safe and secure—an increase of $100 million over the Committee bill.
- $800 million to fund enhanced medical support, transportation, consumable supplies, and additional temporary facilities necessary to ensure the well-being of those taken into custody.

IMMIGRATION ENFORCEMENT: Congress must fund additional immigration detention beds and law enforcement personnel.

- $571 million for 2,000 additional Immigration and Customs Enforcement personnel to enforce immigration laws, combat gang violence, catch drug smugglers and stop human traffickers.
 - $4.2 billion to support 52,000 detention beds, personnel, alternatives to detention, and transportation to address the recent surge in illegal immigration across the Southern Border—an increase of $798 million over the Committee bill.
 - At least $563 million for 75 additional Immigration judges and support staff to reduce the backlog of pending immigration cases.
 - President Trump will work with Congress to facilitate expanded in-country processing of refugee claims.

ICYMI | President Trump Sends a Letter on Border Security to Congress

On January 4, President Trump sent a letter to Members of Congress on the need to secure the border. The President also attached a presentation from Secretary of Homeland Security Kirstjen Nielsen, which is outlined below.

- You can view a copy of the letter by clicking here: President Trump Sends a Letter on Border Security to Congress
- You can view a copy of the presentation by clicking here: A Border Security and Humanitarian Crisis

As the presentation makes clear, current funding levels, resources, and authorities are woefully inadequate to meet the scope of the problem. We are no longer in a status quo situation at the Southern Border but in a crisis situation. Status quo funding is not enough.

- In fiscal year (FY) 2018, 17,000 adults at the border with existing criminal records were arrested by Customs and Border Protection (CBP) and border agents.
- In FY2017 and FY2018, ICE officers arrested approximately 235,000 aliens on various criminal charges or convictions within the interior of the United States—including roughly 100,000 for assault, 30,000 for sex crimes, and 4,000 for homicides.
- We are now averaging 60,000 illegal and inadmissible aliens a month on our Southern Border.
- Last month alone, more than 20,000 minors were smuggled into the United States.
- The immigration court backlog is nearly 800,000 cases.
- There has been a 2,000 percent increase in asylum claims over the last five years, with the largest growth coming from Central America—while around 9 in 10 claims from Central American migrants are ultimately rejected by the immigration courts, the applicant has long since been released into the interior of the United States.
- In FY2017, roughly 135,000 illegal and inadmissible family units arrived from Central America. Of those, less than 2 percent have been successfully removed from the country due to a shortage of resources and glaring loopholes in our federal laws.
- So far in FY2019, we have seen a 280 percent increase in family units from FY2018.
- 300 Americans are killed every week from heroin—90 percent of which floods across our Southern Border.
- Illegal immigration is a humanitarian crisis: 1 in 3 migrant women is sexually assaulted on the journey northward to the U.S. border; 50 illegal migrants a day are referred for emergency medical care; and CBP rescues 4,300 people a year who are in danger and distress.

What You Need To Know | By the Numbers: The Urgent Border Crisis Facing Our Nation

As Democrats in Congress refuse to provide funding to secure the border, we continue to face an urgent crisis of illegal immigration.

- Over 60,000 migrants have arrived at our border each of the last three months.
- Of those 60,000, around 85% illegally crossed our border and 15% presented themselves at a port of entry without documents.

Loopholes in our immigration system are enticing more and more illegal alien minors and families to flood to our southern border.

- In recent years, we have seen a staggering increase in the percentage of illegal alien minors and illegal alien families crossing our border.
- Up until 2012, over 90% of arrivals were single adults and the vast majority were from Mexico.
 - In December, family unit aliens and unaccompanied alien minors made up just under two-thirds (65%) of all crossings.
- Last year family unit aliens and unaccompanied alien minors made up 40% of all crossings, far surpassing the previous record of 28%.

Customs and Border Protection is encountering a growing number of children at the border and continues to refer a large number for medical care.

- Customs and Border Protection encountered an estimated 22,000 children last month.
 - Of those 22,000, more 4,000 of them were 5 and under.
- Border Patrol is referring approximately 50 cases a day to medical providers.
 - Border Patrol referred more than 80 cases to a medical provider just on December 26th.
- From December 22 through December 30, Border Patrol referred 451 cases to a medical provider, the majority of whom were children.
 - Border Patrol referred 259 children to a medical provider.
 - 129 under the age of 5, 88 between the ages of 6 and 14, and 42 between the ages of 15 to 17.

Select Quotes from Local Leaders

State House Speaker McCutcheon (AL): “I fully support President Trump's strong and aggressive effort to protect our country's interests by securing funding for a wall along our southern border. Until we stop countless illegal immigrants from casually jumping the border, our national security will remain compromised, innocent lives will be lost to human trafficking, and the flood of drugs will continue destroying our children's futures. Those in Congress who oppose the funding should stop playing partisan games and set aside their petty personal disputes with the administration. I join millions of my fellow Alabamians in standing with President Trump & demanding that Congress provide the necessary funding today.”

State Senator Phil Berger (NY): “A country with no borders isn't really a country, and right now our borders aren't effective. I support @POTUS efforts to build a wall.”

State Representative Niraj Antani (OH): Having been born in the United States as the son of legal immigrants who followed the law to come to this country and become citizens, I appreciate President Trump's effort to secure our southern border. In Ohio, our citizens are dying every day from fentanyl that is smuggled through the border. We must support President Trump's push to build the wall and help end the fentanyl epidemic."

Mayor Crystal Ruiz (San Jacinto, CA): "@RealDonaldTrump @POTUS is fighting. #BuildTheWall #AmericaFirst."

City Councilman Paul Walker (Manistique, MI): "Attention @TheDemocrats its time to put our Nation's border security above politics → @FUND THE WALL → @SenSchumer @SenStabenow @NancyPelosi @SenGaryPeters #FundTheWall #BuildTheWall #TrumpShutdown. Season Greetings @realDonaldTrump don't give in on #BuildThatWall! Your supporters are depending on you to secure on our borders. #BorderSecurity."

Mayor Hal Marx (Petal, MS) Mayor Hal Marx: "The GOP caving on funding the Wall has energized the conservative base like nothing since the #TeaParty in 2010. I hope this fight reminds Republican voters that we don't need more squishy moderates, we need true conservatives! #BuildTheWall."

Mayor Troy Edgar (Los Alimitos, CA): "Thanks President @realDonaldTrump for standing firm on Border Security! There are many here in California that appreciate your efforts and understand your negotiation approach to reaching a deal with Congress."

Mayor Dennis Kintigh (Roswell, NM): "As the Mayor of a City near our southern border and as a retired FBI agent I fully support the President's effort to secure our borders. I hope Congress will work with the Administration to protect the safety of all Americans."

Mayor John Giles (Mesa, AZ): "All of us in elected office have the fundamental duty of passing a budget and keeping the government running. There should be bipartisan dialogue and compromise in DC that avoids a shutdown, while approving fiscally responsible border security. @WhiteHouse @SenSchumer."

Sheriff Sam Page (Rockingham County, NC): "I support President Trump in his efforts to work with our Congress to fund the Border wall and Border security initiatives. A border wall from a public safety perspective provides a barrier to protect America from Drug traffickers, Criminals and others that choose to harm our American citizens."

Sheriff Thomas Hodgson (MA): "The people of our nation and the Sheriffs who have promised to protect them and uphold our law cannot wait any longer for Congress to fund the wall and secure our borders so we can keep our neighborhoods safe from criminal illegal aliens. For decades, Congress has traded the safety and security of our citizen and legal residents, and undermined the efforts of law enforcement, by choosing to not act on comprehensive immigration reforms and border security in order to advance individual political agendas. Enough is enough. Congress must act now on the funding for the border wall. Failure to do so will confirm once again Congress Members' total disregard for families who continued to be victimized by criminal illegal aliens. Almost every day, someone dies at the hands of an illegal alien, and dangerous drugs keep pouring across our borders and into our communities. It's time for members of Congress to side with the American people. It's time for Members of Congress to protect the American people and help law enforcement make communities and neighborhoods safer places to live, work and raise a family. It's time for Members of Congress to put aside their political agendas."

Sheriff Darren Campbell (Iredell County, NC): “As the elected Sheriff of Iredell County which is located in North Carolina. I have over 25 years of law enforcement experience. I consistently everyday see the impact of illegal immigration and the crime that it can spawn for example just this week we arrested two persons who are here illegally they were arrested on trafficking in methamphetamine charges, this is only the most recent. I urge you to support President Trump in providing funding for the border wall and border security.

Thank you for your help. I have touched base with Karrah. But, Varney did bow out when they learned the Supervisor was scheduled to be on "after the bell" after the meeting. But, I did just hear from their producer who said they would be unable to make it work. So if you have any other ones, or another FOX Business program, please do let us know. Also have another request for you for this evening on Martha MacCallum's show on Fox - would be from the same location at the bureau. Her show is on from 7-8p.

Let me know and I can loop in Michelle Cook with the producer.

White House Complex Entry Instructions:

Please plan to enter the White House Complex through the entrance at 17th Street NW and State Place NW. State Place is one block below F Street NW. This entrance is on the West side of the White House. We will plan to meet you in the Eisenhower Executive Office Building (EEOB).

Upon your arrival, Secret Service will need to check your driver's license or passport. This must be a current, valid form of identification, and paper copies will not be accepted. Please keep in mind that if there are any discrepancies (including minor "typos") between the personal information that you submit and what is listed on your identification, then Secret Service will not be able to admit you. The United States Signs a Stronger Trade Agreement with Mexico and Canada

"This new deal will be the most modern, up-to-date, and balanced trade agreement in the history of our country, with the most advanced protections for workers ever developed." – President Donald J. Trump

REBALANCING OUR TRADE RELATIONSHIP: President Donald J. Trump kept his promise to deliver a modern and rebalanced trade deal to replace NAFTA.

- Today in Argentina, the United States is joining Canada and Mexico to sign a new trade agreement that will better serve the interests of American workers and businesses.
 - This follows the President's announcement in October that a deal had been reached.

- The new United States–Mexico–Canada Agreement (USMCA) will replace the outdated, failed North American Free Trade Agreement (NAFTA).
- With the signing of this agreement, President Trump has delivered on his promise to renegotiate NAFTA and protect American farmers, ranchers, businesses, and workers.

SECURING A STRONGER DEAL FOR AMERICAN INDUSTRIES AND WORKERS:
USMCA is a stronger deal for American farmers, ranchers, businesses, and workers.

- USMCA will help incentivize billions of dollars in additional vehicle and auto parts production in the United States.
- The agreement includes updated rules of origin that require 75 percent of auto content to be produced in North America.
- American autoworkers will benefit from rules that incentivize the use of high-wage manufacturing labor in the auto sector.
 - This includes a requirement that 40-45% of a vehicle consist of content manufactured by North American workers making at least $16 per hour.
- USMCA’s labor and environment chapters are fully enforceable and represent the strongest labor and environmental provisions of any trade agreement ever negotiated.
 - Mexico agreed to historic labor reforms to provide for genuine collective bargaining.
 - The agreement prohibits the importation of goods produced by forced labor.
- The agreement includes provisions that allow agriculture products to be traded more fairly.
 - Canada will end its “Class 6” and “Class 7” programs that allow low-priced dairy products to undersell American dairy producers.
 - Canada will increase market access for United States dairy products, eggs, and poultry.

REFORMING TRADE FOR THE 21ST CENTURY: USMCA modernizes our trade relationship with Canada and Mexico to reflect the realities of the 21st century.

- The new agreement includes a modernized chapter that provides stronger and more comprehensive intellectual property protections than any prior United States trade agreement.
 - These protections are vital to promoting innovation and economic growth.
 - USMCA includes robust copyright protection, 10 years of data protection for biologic drugs, and new protections against the theft of trade secrets.
- USMCA includes the strongest digital trade and financial services provisions of any United States trade agreement.
 - New rules ensure that data can be transferred cross-border and that limits on where data can be stored are minimized.
- USMCA will cut red tape at the border, streamline trade, and reduce regulatory uncertainty.
- The agreement includes a currency chapter that will help reinforce transparency and stability.

Subject: What You Need To Know | President Trump Supports Opening The Government Now That Democrats Will Negotiate On Barrier Funding

White House Office of Intergovernmental Affairs

President Trump supports reopening the Government now that many Democrats have finally agreed to negotiate on border security and barrier funding. While we hope that Congress finds a solution in the next three weeks, the President will continue to keep all options on the table. Dozens of rank-and-file Democrats have reached out to the Administration and signaled they are willing to provide wall funding if the Government reopens. The President made a good-faith offer, and there is real opportunity to accomplish objectives that both parties want. Below you will find additional information.

What You Need To Know | President Trump Supports Opening The Government Now That Democrats Will Negotiate On Barrier Funding

President Trump supports reopening the government now that Democrats have finally agreed to negotiate on border security, including barrier funding.

- The President remains firmly committed to a barrier, including $5.7 billion in funding.
- Pelosi and the Democrats were originally unwilling to give $1 to a barrier but are now willing to negotiate.
- The President will continue to keep all options on the table, including declaration of a national emergency.
- The President will continue to defend the American people, address this humanitarian crisis, and protect our southern border.

It is up to Democrats to stop obstructing and do their part to secure the border and protect America.

- The President made a good faith offer and finally Democrats have agreed to negotiate as the President has asked since the beginning.
- Dozens of rank-and-file Democrats have reached out to the Administration and signaled they are willing to provide barrier funding if the government reopens.
- Congress has one more chance to work together, negotiate, and address the security and humanitarian crisis on the border.

Because of the President's actions, federal workers will be paid in the next few days.

- Congress should reopen the government immediately. Federal workers have suffered and our borders remain open because Democrats have refused to negotiate.
- We thank the public servants who have worked without pay and those who have been furloughed.

- Thankfully with President Trump's leadership we were able to secure all of your back pay which will be coming soon.

Many prominent Democrats have said they support barriers on our Southern border.

- Sen. Dick Durbin (D-IL): "I can tell you we have had fencing in the past and I'm sure we will in the future."
- Sen. Angus King (I-ME): "There are places along the border where wall makes sense" And "Everybody is for border security. The question is, let's do it in a rational, economic, sensible way. There are places where wall makes sense ..."
- Sen. Jeff Merkley (D-OR): "Some fencing has uses. Some barriers are useful."
- Sen. Ben Cardin (D-MD): "Certainly you need barriers and we support barriers."
- Sen. Mark Warner (D-VA): "I know we're going to have to add additional border security.... We've got about 700 miles of existing fencing. Where folks say we need additional barrier protections, I'm all for it."
- Sen. Chris Coons (D-DE): "I personally don't think that a border wall is in and of itself immoral."
- Rep. Hakeem Jeffries (D-NY): "There are areas along the border where there are currently fences that are put up or barriers that are put up that need to be enhanced."
- Rep. Eric Swalwell (D-CA): "Increase Border Patrol agents. Increase enforcement of overstay of visas. Increase use of technology and yes fencing where there are vulnerabilities."
- Rep. Cheri Bustos (D-IL): "If we have a partial wall. If we have fencing. If we have technology used to keep our border safe. All of that is fine."
- Rep. Steny Hoyer (D-MD) When asked about a wall working responds "Obviously they work".
- Rep. Debbie Dingell (D-MI): "You would be surprised at the amount of money people are willing to put into border security and it would contain many things. ... If there are places that some kind of barrier should be part of it, then that's part of it."
- Asked if the Democratic House leadership is willing to spend $5.7 billion on a wall or border security, House Majority Whip Jim Clyburn (D-SC): "We may be, so as long as there's supporting evidence that that's what's required."

Subject: WH IGA: President Donald J. Trump's Plan to Reopen the Government and Fund Border Security

White House Office of Intergovernmental Affairs

State and Local Elected Officials,

As a follow-up to President Donald Trump's remarks, please find the below Fact Sheet outlining the Administration's plan to reopen the government and fund border security.

Thank you,

The White House Office of Intergovernmental Affairs

PRESIDENT DONALD J. TRUMP'S PLAN TO REOPEN THE GOVERNMENT AND FUND BORDER SECURITY

"To every member of Congress: Pass a bill that ends this crisis. To every citizen: Call Congress and tell them to finally, after all of these decades, secure our border. This is a choice between right and wrong, justice and injustice. This is about whether we fulfill our sacred duty to the American citizens we serve." – President Donald J. Trump

PRESIDENTIAL LEADERSHIP: President Donald J. Trump is showing strong leadership by working with Congress to find a solution to reopen our government and secure the border.

- The President is solving the decades old problem of border security.
- The negotiation team tasked by President Trump has been working with Republicans and Democrats to find a compromise to reopen the government while providing border security.

- The President is bringing together the best ideas from both sides to come up with solution to a complex problem.

RESPONSIBLE GOVERNMENT FUNDING: The bipartisan and common sense legislation proposed by President Trump will reopen our government and secure the border.

- $5.7 billion to fund a steel barrier system, including embedded investments in technology and roads, on our southern border in the priority areas cited by Border Patrol.
 - This is in addition to the more than 115 miles of barriers already built, replaced, or contracted under President Trump.
- $805 million for technology, canines, and personnel to help stop the flow of illegal drugs, weapons and other contraband. This includes:
 - $675 million for drug detection inspection technology to help secure our ports of entry.
 - $130 million for canine units, training, personnel and portable scanners to help deter and detect smuggled narcotics, weapons, and other dangerous materials.
- $800 million dollars in humanitarian assistance, medical support, and new temporary housing.
- $782 million to hire an additional 2,750 border agents, law enforcement officers, and staff.
- $563 million to support our immigration court system, including hiring 75 new immigration judge teams to reduce the immigration court backlog of 800,000 cases.

BIPARTISAN SOLUTION: As part of President Trump's willingness to compromise to reopen the government, he is proposing to grant provisional status to current DACA and Temporary Protected Status (TPS) recipients.

- Provisional status will be granted for three years for current DACA recipients, covering 700,000 illegal immigrants brought here by their parents at a young age.
 - This status will give them access to work permits, social security numbers, and protection from deportation.
- Provisional status will be granted to certain current TPS recipients for three years, providing 300,000 immigrants whose protected status is facing expiration more certainty as Congress works on a larger immigration deal.

IMMEDIATE CRISIS: President Trump's proposal would solve the immediate security and humanitarian crisis at our southern border, but would not solve all of our immigration challenges.

- America faces an immediate humanitarian crisis from our unsecured border.
 - According to a 2017 Doctors Without Borders Report, more than 30 percent of women are sexually assaulted on the trek to the border.
 - On average, the United States Border Patrol refers approximately 50 individuals to a hospital or medical provider, including children who cross the border in need of medical attention.
 - The number of families and unaccompanied children crossing the border illegally has grown dramatically in recent months. This past December, Border Patrol apprehended 32,284 families and unaccompanied children. Just six months prior, Border Patrol apprehended only 13,164 families and unaccompanied children.
- The country still faces serious immigration issues that need a permanent solution, including interior enforcement, asylum reform, worksite verification, the 11 million people living in the country unlawfully, and moving toward a merit-based immigration system.
 - Once the government is open and the immediate crisis is addressed, President Trump will hold weekly bipartisan meetings to reform our immigration system.

What You Need To Know | President Trump Has Put a Deal on the Table to Reopen the Government and Secure the Southern Border

"I campaigned on Border Security, which you cannot have without a strong and powerful Wall. Our Southern Border has long been an "Open Wound," where drugs, criminals (including human traffickers) and illegals would pour into our Country."— President Donald J. Trump

CRISIS AT THE BORDER: President Trump continues to stress the need to pass legislation that will address the security and humanitarian crises on our Southern Border.

- The United States Southern Border is overwhelmed with illegal immigration, gang violence, crime, drugs, and human trafficking.
- President Trump has requested a modest amount of funding to address these issues while Democrats continue to resist in the name of politics.
- We cannot keep our country safe without adequate funding for Border security, including a physical barrier and increased in funding for law enforcement.

BORDER SECURITY AND HUMANITARIAN PRIORITIES: Any government funding bill must address the crises on our Southern Border. The Administration has requested additional funds to address these priorities.

- $5.7 billion for construction of a steel barrier on the Southern Border to fund 234 miles of new physical barrier—an increase of $4.1 billion over the Committee bill.
- $675 million to deter and detect narcotics, weapons, and other materials that pose a threat to the United States—an increase of $631 million over the Committee bill.
 - Will provide Non-Intrusive Inspection technology for all incoming vehicle lanes of traffic at U.S. Southwest Border Land Ports of Entry, as well as necessary canine and other support.
- $211 million to hire 750 additional Border Patrol agents in order to keep our borders safe and secure—an increase of $100 million over the Committee bill.
- $800 million to fund enhanced medical support, transportation, consumable supplies, and additional temporary facilities necessary to ensure the well-being of those taken into custody.

IMMIGRATION ENFORCEMENT: Congress must fund additional immigration detention beds and law enforcement personnel.

- $571 million for 2,000 additional Immigration and Customs Enforcement personnel to enforce immigration laws, combat gang violence, catch drug smugglers and stop human traffickers.
 - $4.2 billion to support 52,000 detention beds, personnel, alternatives to detention, and transportation to address the recent surge in illegal immigration across the Southern Border—an increase of $798 million over the Committee bill.
 - At least $563 million for 75 additional Immigration judges and support staff to reduce the backlog of pending immigration cases.
 - President Trump will work with Congress to facilitate expanded in-country processing of refugee claims.

ICYMI | President Trump Sends a Letter on Border Security to Congress

On January 4, President Trump sent a letter to Members of Congress on the need to secure the border. The President also attached a presentation from Secretary of Homeland Security Kirstjen Nielsen, which is outlined below.

- You can view a copy of the letter by clicking here: President Trump Sends a Letter on Border Security to Congress
- You can view a copy of the presentation by clicking here: A Border Security and Humanitarian Crisis

As the presentation makes clear, current funding levels, resources, and authorities are woefully inadequate to meet the scope of the problem. We are no longer in a status quo situation at the Southern Border but in a crisis situation. Status quo funding is not enough.

- In fiscal year (FY) 2018, 17,000 adults at the border with existing criminal records were arrested by Customs and Border Protection (CBP) and border agents.
- In FY2017 and FY2018, ICE officers arrested approximately 235,000 aliens on various criminal charges or convictions within the interior of the United States—including roughly 100,000 for assault, 30,000 for sex crimes, and 4,000 for homicides.
- We are now averaging 60,000 illegal and inadmissible aliens a month on our Southern Border.
- Last month alone, more than 20,000 minors were smuggled into the United States.
- The immigration court backlog is nearly 800,000 cases.
- There has been a 2,000 percent increase in asylum claims over the last five years, with the largest growth coming from Central America—while around 9 in 10 claims from Central American migrants are ultimately rejected by the immigration courts, the applicant has long since been released into the interior of the United States.
- In FY2017, roughly 135,000 illegal and inadmissible family units arrived from Central America. Of those, less than 2 percent have been successfully removed from the country due to a shortage of resources and glaring loopholes in our federal laws.
- So far in FY2019, we have seen a 280 percent increase in family units from FY2018.
- 300 Americans are killed every week from heroin—90 percent of which floods across our Southern Border.
- Illegal immigration is a humanitarian crisis: 1 in 3 migrant women is sexually assaulted on the journey northward to the U.S. border; 50 illegal migrants a day are referred for emergency medical care; and CBP rescues 4,300 people a year who are in danger and distress.

What You Need To Know | By the Numbers: The Urgent Border Crisis Facing Our Nation

As Democrats in Congress refuse to provide funding to secure the border, we continue to face an urgent crisis of illegal immigration.

- Over 60,000 migrants have arrived at our border each of the last three months.
- Of those 60,000, around 85% illegally crossed our border and 15% presented themselves at a port of entry without documents.

Loopholes in our immigration system are enticing more and more illegal alien minors and families to flood to our southern border.

- In recent years, we have seen a staggering increase in the percentage of illegal alien minors and illegal alien families crossing our border.
- Up until 2012, over 90% of arrivals were single adults and the vast majority were from Mexico.
 - In December, family unit aliens and unaccompanied alien minors made up just under two-thirds (65%) of all crossings.
- Last year family unit aliens and unaccompanied alien minors made up 40% of all crossings, far surpassing the previous record of 28%.

Customs and Border Protection is encountering a growing number of children at the border and continues to refer a large number for medical care.

- Customs and Border Protection encountered an estimated 22,000 children last month.
 - Of those 22,000, more 4,000 of them were 5 and under.
- Border Patrol is referring approximately 50 cases a day to medical providers.
 - Border Patrol referred more than 80 cases to a medical provider just on December 26th.
- From December 22 through December 30, Border Patrol referred 451 cases to a medical provider, the majority of whom were children.
 - Border Patrol referred 259 children to a medical provider.
 - 129 under the age of 5, 88 between the ages of 6 and 14, and 42 between the ages of 15 to 17.

Select Quotes from Local Leaders

State House Speaker McCutcheon (AL): “I fully support President Trump's strong and aggressive effort to protect our country's interests by securing funding for a wall along our southern border. Until we stop countless illegal immigrants from casually jumping the border, our national security will remain compromised, innocent lives will be lost to human trafficking, and the flood of drugs will continue destroying our children's futures. Those in Congress who oppose the funding should stop playing partisan games and set aside their petty personal disputes with the administration. I join millions of my fellow Alabamians in standing with President Trump & demanding that Congress provide the necessary funding today.”

State Senator Phil Berger (NY): “A country with no borders isn't really a country, and right now our borders aren't effective. I support @POTUS efforts to build a wall.”

State Representative Niraj Antani (OH): Having been born in the United States as the son of legal immigrants who followed the law to come to this country and become citizens, I appreciate President Trump's effort to secure our southern border. In Ohio, our citizens are dying every day from fentanyl that is smuggled through the border. We must support President Trump's push to build the wall and help end the fentanyl epidemic."

Mayor Crystal Ruiz (San Jacinto, CA): "@RealDonaldTrump @POTUS is fighting. #BuildTheWall #AmericaFirst."

City Councilman Paul Walker (Manistique, MI): "Attention @TheDemocrats its time to put our Nation's border security above politics → @FUND THE WALL → @SenSchumer @SenStabenow @NancyPelosi @SenGaryPeters #FundTheWall #BuildTheWall #TrumpShutdown. Season Greetings @realDonaldTrump don't give in on #BuildThatWall! Your supporters are depending on you to secure on our borders. #BorderSecurity."

Mayor Hal Marx (Petal, MS) Mayor Hal Marx: "The GOP caving on funding the Wall has energized the conservative base like nothing since the #TeaParty in 2010. I hope this fight reminds Republican voters that we don't need more squishy moderates, we need true conservatives! #BuildTheWall."

Mayor Troy Edgar (Los Alimitos, CA): "Thanks President @realDonaldTrump for standing firm on Border Security! There are many here in California that appreciate your efforts and understand your negotiation approach to reaching a deal with Congress."

Mayor Dennis Kintigh (Roswell, NM): "As the Mayor of a City near our southern border and as a retired FBI agent I fully support the President's effort to secure our borders. I hope Congress will work with the Administration to protect the safety of all Americans."

Mayor John Giles (Mesa, AZ): "All of us in elected office have the fundamental duty of passing a budget and keeping the government running. There should be bipartisan dialogue and compromise in DC that avoids a shutdown, while approving fiscally responsible border security. @WhiteHouse @SenSchumer."

Sheriff Sam Page (Rockingham County, NC): "I support President Trump in his efforts to work with our Congress to fund the Border wall and Border security initiatives. A border wall from a public safety perspective provides a barrier to protect America from Drug traffickers, Criminals and others that choose to harm our American citizens."

Sheriff Thomas Hodgson (MA): "The people of our nation and the Sheriffs who have promised to protect them and uphold our law cannot wait any longer for Congress to fund the wall and secure our borders so we can keep our neighborhoods safe from criminal illegal aliens. For decades, Congress has traded the safety and security of our citizen and legal residents, and undermined the efforts of law enforcement, by choosing to not act on comprehensive immigration reforms and border security in order to advance individual political agendas. Enough is enough. Congress must act now on the funding for the border wall. Failure to do so will confirm once again Congress Members' total disregard for families who continued to be victimized by criminal illegal aliens. Almost every day, someone dies at the hands of an illegal alien, and dangerous drugs keep pouring across our borders and into our communities. It's time for members of Congress to side with the American people. It's time for Members of Congress to protect the American people and help law enforcement make communities and neighborhoods safer places to live, work and raise a family. It's time for Members of Congress to put aside their political agendas."

Sheriff Darren Campbell (Iredell County, NC): “As the elected Sheriff of Iredell County which is located in North Carolina. I have over 25 years of law enforcement experience. I consistently everyday see the impact of illegal immigration and the crime that it can spawn for example just this week we arrested two persons who are here illegally they were arrested on trafficking in methamphetamine charges, this is only the most recent. I urge you to support President Trump in providing funding for the border wall and border security.

The United States Signs a Stronger Trade Agreement with Mexico and Canada

"This new deal will be the most modern, up-to-date, and balanced trade agreement in the history of our country, with the most advanced protections for workers ever developed." – President Donald J. Trump

REBALANCING OUR TRADE RELATIONSHIP: President Donald J. Trump kept his promise to deliver a modern and rebalanced trade deal to replace NAFTA.

- Today in Argentina, the United States is joining Canada and Mexico to sign a new trade agreement that will better serve the interests of American workers and businesses.
 - This follows the President's announcement in October that a deal had been reached.

- The new United States–Mexico–Canada Agreement (USMCA) will replace the outdated, failed North American Free Trade Agreement (NAFTA).
- With the signing of this agreement, President Trump has delivered on his promise to renegotiate NAFTA and protect American farmers, ranchers, businesses, and workers.

SECURING A STRONGER DEAL FOR AMERICAN INDUSTRIES AND WORKERS:
USMCA is a stronger deal for American farmers, ranchers, businesses, and workers.

- USMCA will help incentivize billions of dollars in additional vehicle and auto parts production in the United States.
- The agreement includes updated rules of origin that require 75 percent of auto content to be produced in North America.
- American autoworkers will benefit from rules that incentivize the use of high-wage manufacturing labor in the auto sector.
 - This includes a requirement that 40-45% of a vehicle consist of content manufactured by North American workers making at least $16 per hour.
- USMCA’s labor and environment chapters are fully enforceable and represent the strongest labor and environmental provisions of any trade agreement ever negotiated.
 - Mexico agreed to historic labor reforms to provide for genuine collective bargaining.
 - The agreement prohibits the importation of goods produced by forced labor.
- The agreement includes provisions that allow agriculture products to be traded more fairly.
 - Canada will end its “Class 6” and “Class 7” programs that allow low-priced dairy products to undersell American dairy producers.
 - Canada will increase market access for United States dairy products, eggs, and poultry.

REFORMING TRADE FOR THE 21ST CENTURY: USMCA modernizes our trade relationship with Canada and Mexico to reflect the realities of the 21st century.

- The new agreement includes a modernized chapter that provides stronger and more comprehensive intellectual property protections than any prior United States trade agreement.
 - These protections are vital to promoting innovation and economic growth.
 - USMCA includes robust copyright protection, 10 years of data protection for biologic drugs, and new protections against the theft of trade secrets.
- USMCA includes the strongest digital trade and financial services provisions of any United States trade agreement.
 - New rules ensure that data can be transferred cross-border and that limits on where data can be stored are minimized.
- USMCA will cut red tape at the border, streamline trade, and reduce regulatory uncertainty.
- The agreement includes a currency chapter that will help reinforce transparency and stability.

 - The Trump Administration has begun the process to expand the sale of E15, or gasoline containing 15 percent ethanol, to year round.
- Under President Trump, the United States will no longer accept bad trade deals and unfair trade practices that harm American workers and industries.
 - One of the President's first actions after taking office was withdrawing the United States from the terrible Trans-Pacific Partnership, which incentivized outsourcing.
 - In 2017, the Administration oversaw 82 antidumping and countervailing duty investigations.
- President Trump is holding China accountable for its unfair trade practices, such as the theft of intellectual property, by imposing tariffs on $250 billion in Chinese goods.
 - Following President Trump's successful meeting with President Xi in Buenos Aires, both agreed to conduct negotiations over 90 days to address the United States concerns.
- American steel and aluminum jobs are coming back following President Trump's tariffs to protect domestic industries that are vital to national security.
- President Trump imposed tariffs to protect American-made washing machines and solar products that were hurt by import surges.

Subject: What You Need To Know | President Trump Supports Opening The Government Now That Democrats Will Negotiate On Barrier Funding

White House Office of Intergovernmental Affairs

President Trump supports reopening the Government now that many Democrats have finally agreed to negotiate on border security and barrier funding. While we hope that Congress finds a solution in the next three weeks, the President will continue to keep all options on the table. Dozens of rank-and-file Democrats have reached out to the Administration and signaled they are willing to provide wall funding if the Government reopens. The President made a good-faith offer, and there is real opportunity to accomplish objectives that both parties want. Below you will find additional information.

What You Need To Know | President Trump Supports Opening The Government Now That Democrats Will Negotiate On Barrier Funding

President Trump supports reopening the government now that Democrats have finally agreed to negotiate on border security, including barrier funding.

- The President remains firmly committed to a barrier, including $5.7 billion in funding.
- Pelosi and the Democrats were originally unwilling to give $1 to a barrier but are now willing to negotiate.
- The President will continue to keep all options on the table, including declaration of a national emergency.
- The President will continue to defend the American people, address this humanitarian crisis, and protect our southern border.

It is up to Democrats to stop obstructing and do their part to secure the border and protect America.

- The President made a good faith offer and finally Democrats have agreed to negotiate as the President has asked since the beginning.
- Dozens of rank-and-file Democrats have reached out to the Administration and signaled they are willing to provide barrier funding if the government reopens.
- Congress has one more chance to work together, negotiate, and address the security and humanitarian crisis on the border.

Because of the President's actions, federal workers will be paid in the next few days.

- Congress should reopen the government immediately. Federal workers have suffered and our borders remain open because Democrats have refused to negotiate.
- We thank the public servants who have worked without pay and those who have been furloughed.

- Thankfully with President Trump's leadership we were able to secure all of your back pay which will be coming soon.

Many prominent Democrats have said they support barriers on our Southern border.

- Sen. Dick Durbin (D-IL): "I can tell you we have had fencing in the past and I'm sure we will in the future."
- Sen. Angus King (I-ME): "There are places along the border where wall makes sense" And "Everybody is for border security. The question is, let's do it in a rational, economic, sensible way. There are places where wall makes sense ..."
- Sen. Jeff Merkley (D-OR): "Some fencing has uses. Some barriers are useful."
- Sen. Ben Cardin (D-MD): "Certainly you need barriers and we support barriers."
- Sen. Mark Warner (D-VA): "I know we're going to have to add additional border security.... We've got about 700 miles of existing fencing. Where folks say we need additional barrier protections, I'm all for it."
- Sen. Chris Coons (D-DE): "I personally don't think that a border wall is in and of itself immoral."
- Rep. Hakeem Jeffries (D-NY): "There are areas along the border where there are currently fences that are put up or barriers that are put up that need to be enhanced."
- Rep. Eric Swalwell (D-CA): "Increase Border Patrol agents. Increase enforcement of overstay of visas. Increase use of technology and yes fencing where there are vulnerabilities."
- Rep. Cheri Bustos (D-IL): "If we have a partial wall. If we have fencing. If we have technology used to keep our border safe. All of that is fine."
- Rep. Steny Hoyer (D-MD) When asked about a wall working responds "Obviously they work".
- Rep. Debbie Dingell (D-MI): "You would be surprised at the amount of money people are willing to put into border security and it would contain many things. ... If there are places that some kind of barrier should be part of it, then that's part of it."
- Asked if the Democratic House leadership is willing to spend $5.7 billion on a wall or border security, House Majority Whip Jim Clyburn (D-SC): "We may be, so as long as there's supporting evidence that that's what's required."

Subject: WH IGA: President Donald J. Trump's Plan to Reopen the Government and Fund Border Security

White House Office of Intergovernmental Affairs

State and Local Elected Officials,

As a follow-up to President Donald Trump's remarks, please find the below Fact Sheet outlining the Administration's plan to reopen the government and fund border security.

Thank you,

The White House Office of Intergovernmental Affairs

PRESIDENT DONALD J. TRUMP'S PLAN TO REOPEN THE GOVERNMENT AND FUND BORDER SECURITY

"To every member of Congress: Pass a bill that ends this crisis. To every citizen: Call Congress and tell them to finally, after all of these decades, secure our border. This is a choice between right and wrong, justice and injustice. This is about whether we fulfill our sacred duty to the American citizens we serve." – President Donald J. Trump

PRESIDENTIAL LEADERSHIP: President Donald J. Trump is showing strong leadership by working with Congress to find a solution to reopen our government and secure the border.

- The President is solving the decades old problem of border security.
- The negotiation team tasked by President Trump has been working with Republicans and Democrats to find a compromise to reopen the government while providing border security.

- The President is bringing together the best ideas from both sides to come up with solution to a complex problem.

RESPONSIBLE GOVERNMENT FUNDING: The bipartisan and common sense legislation proposed by President Trump will reopen our government and secure the border.

- $5.7 billion to fund a steel barrier system, including embedded investments in technology and roads, on our southern border in the priority areas cited by Border Patrol.
 - This is in addition to the more than 115 miles of barriers already built, replaced, or contracted under President Trump.
- $805 million for technology, canines, and personnel to help stop the flow of illegal drugs, weapons and other contraband. This includes:
 - $675 million for drug detection inspection technology to help secure our ports of entry.
 - $130 million for canine units, training, personnel and portable scanners to help deter and detect smuggled narcotics, weapons, and other dangerous materials.
- $800 million dollars in humanitarian assistance, medical support, and new temporary housing.
- $782 million to hire an additional 2,750 border agents, law enforcement officers, and staff.
- $563 million to support our immigration court system, including hiring 75 new immigration judge teams to reduce the immigration court backlog of 800,000 cases.

BIPARTISAN SOLUTION: As part of President Trump's willingness to compromise to reopen the government, he is proposing to grant provisional status to current DACA and Temporary Protected Status (TPS) recipients.

- Provisional status will be granted for three years for current DACA recipients, covering 700,000 illegal immigrants brought here by their parents at a young age.
 - This status will give them access to work permits, social security numbers, and protection from deportation.
- Provisional status will be granted to certain current TPS recipients for three years, providing 300,000 immigrants whose protected status is facing expiration more certainty as Congress works on a larger immigration deal.

IMMEDIATE CRISIS: President Trump's proposal would solve the immediate security and humanitarian crisis at our southern border, but would not solve all of our immigration challenges.

- America faces an immediate humanitarian crisis from our unsecured border.
 - According to a 2017 Doctors Without Borders Report, more than 30 percent of women are sexually assaulted on the trek to the border.
 - On average, the United States Border Patrol refers approximately 50 individuals to a hospital or medical provider, including children who cross the border in need of medical attention.
 - The number of families and unaccompanied children crossing the border illegally has grown dramatically in recent months. This past December, Border Patrol apprehended 32,284 families and unaccompanied children. Just six months prior, Border Patrol apprehended only 13,164 families and unaccompanied children.
- The country still faces serious immigration issues that need a permanent solution, including interior enforcement, asylum reform, worksite verification, the 11 million people living in the country unlawfully, and moving toward a merit-based immigration system.
 - Once the government is open and the immediate crisis is addressed, President Trump will hold weekly bipartisan meetings to reform our immigration system.

What You Need To Know | President Trump Has Put a Deal on the Table to Reopen the Government and Secure the Southern Border

"I campaigned on Border Security, which you cannot have without a strong and powerful Wall. Our Southern Border has long been an "Open Wound," where drugs, criminals (including human traffickers) and illegals would pour into our Country."— President Donald J. Trump

CRISIS AT THE BORDER: President Trump continues to stress the need to pass legislation that will address the security and humanitarian crises on our Southern Border.

- The United States Southern Border is overwhelmed with illegal immigration, gang violence, crime, drugs, and human trafficking.
- President Trump has requested a modest amount of funding to address these issues while Democrats continue to resist in the name of politics.
- We cannot keep our country safe without adequate funding for Border security, including a physical barrier and increased in funding for law enforcement.

BORDER SECURITY AND HUMANITARIAN PRIORITIES: Any government funding bill must address the crises on our Southern Border. The Administration has requested additional funds to address these priorities.

- $5.7 billion for construction of a steel barrier on the Southern Border to fund 234 miles of new physical barrier—an increase of $4.1 billion over the Committee bill.
- $675 million to deter and detect narcotics, weapons, and other materials that pose a threat to the United States—an increase of $631 million over the Committee bill.
 - Will provide Non-Intrusive Inspection technology for all incoming vehicle lanes of traffic at U.S. Southwest Border Land Ports of Entry, as well as necessary canine and other support.
- $211 million to hire 750 additional Border Patrol agents in order to keep our borders safe and secure—an increase of $100 million over the Committee bill.
- $800 million to fund enhanced medical support, transportation, consumable supplies, and additional temporary facilities necessary to ensure the well-being of those taken into custody.

IMMIGRATION ENFORCEMENT: Congress must fund additional immigration detention beds and law enforcement personnel.

- $571 million for 2,000 additional Immigration and Customs Enforcement personnel to enforce immigration laws, combat gang violence, catch drug smugglers and stop human traffickers.
 - $4.2 billion to support 52,000 detention beds, personnel, alternatives to detention, and transportation to address the recent surge in illegal immigration across the Southern Border—an increase of $798 million over the Committee bill.
 - At least $563 million for 75 additional Immigration judges and support staff to reduce the backlog of pending immigration cases.
 - President Trump will work with Congress to facilitate expanded in-country processing of refugee claims.

ICYMI | President Trump Sends a Letter on Border Security to Congress

On January 4, President Trump sent a letter to Members of Congress on the need to secure the border. The President also attached a presentation from Secretary of Homeland Security Kirstjen Nielsen, which is outlined below.

- You can view a copy of the letter by clicking here: President Trump Sends a Letter on Border Security to Congress
- You can view a copy of the presentation by clicking here: A Border Security and Humanitarian Crisis

As the presentation makes clear, current funding levels, resources, and authorities are woefully inadequate to meet the scope of the problem. We are no longer in a status quo situation at the Southern Border but in a crisis situation. Status quo funding is not enough.

- In fiscal year (FY) 2018, 17,000 adults at the border with existing criminal records were arrested by Customs and Border Protection (CBP) and border agents.
- In FY2017 and FY2018, ICE officers arrested approximately 235,000 aliens on various criminal charges or convictions within the interior of the United States—including roughly 100,000 for assault, 30,000 for sex crimes, and 4,000 for homicides.
- We are now averaging 60,000 illegal and inadmissible aliens a month on our Southern Border.
- Last month alone, more than 20,000 minors were smuggled into the United States.
- The immigration court backlog is nearly 800,000 cases.
- There has been a 2,000 percent increase in asylum claims over the last five years, with the largest growth coming from Central America—while around 9 in 10 claims from Central American migrants are ultimately rejected by the immigration courts, the applicant has long since been released into the interior of the United States.
- In FY2017, roughly 135,000 illegal and inadmissible family units arrived from Central America. Of those, less than 2 percent have been successfully removed from the country due to a shortage of resources and glaring loopholes in our federal laws.
- So far in FY2019, we have seen a 280 percent increase in family units from FY2018.
- 300 Americans are killed every week from heroin—90 percent of which floods across our Southern Border.
- Illegal immigration is a humanitarian crisis: 1 in 3 migrant women is sexually assaulted on the journey northward to the U.S. border; 50 illegal migrants a day are referred for emergency medical care; and CBP rescues 4,300 people a year who are in danger and distress.

What You Need To Know | By the Numbers: The Urgent Border Crisis Facing Our Nation

As Democrats in Congress refuse to provide funding to secure the border, we continue to face an urgent crisis of illegal immigration.

- Over 60,000 migrants have arrived at our border each of the last three months.
- Of those 60,000, around 85% illegally crossed our border and 15% presented themselves at a port of entry without documents.

Loopholes in our immigration system are enticing more and more illegal alien minors and families to flood to our southern border.

- In recent years, we have seen a staggering increase in the percentage of illegal alien minors and illegal alien families crossing our border.
- Up until 2012, over 90% of arrivals were single adults and the vast majority were from Mexico.
 - In December, family unit aliens and unaccompanied alien minors made up just under two-thirds (65%) of all crossings.
- Last year family unit aliens and unaccompanied alien minors made up 40% of all crossings, far surpassing the previous record of 28%.

Customs and Border Protection is encountering a growing number of children at the border and continues to refer a large number for medical care.

- Customs and Border Protection encountered an estimated 22,000 children last month.
 - Of those 22,000, more 4,000 of them were 5 and under.
- Border Patrol is referring approximately 50 cases a day to medical providers.
 - Border Patrol referred more than 80 cases to a medical provider just on December 26th.
- From December 22 through December 30, Border Patrol referred 451 cases to a medical provider, the majority of whom were children.
 - Border Patrol referred 259 children to a medical provider.
 - 129 under the age of 5, 88 between the ages of 6 and 14, and 42 between the ages of 15 to 17.

Select Quotes from Local Leaders

State House Speaker McCutcheon (AL): “I fully support President Trump's strong and aggressive effort to protect our country's interests by securing funding for a wall along our southern border. Until we stop countless illegal immigrants from casually jumping the border, our national security will remain compromised, innocent lives will be lost to human trafficking, and the flood of drugs will continue destroying our children's futures. Those in Congress who oppose the funding should stop playing partisan games and set aside their petty personal disputes with the administration. I join millions of my fellow Alabamians in standing with President Trump & demanding that Congress provide the necessary funding today.”

State Senator Phil Berger (NY): “A country with no borders isn't really a country, and right now our borders aren't effective. I support @POTUS efforts to build a wall.”

State Representative Niraj Antani (OH): Having been born in the United States as the son of legal immigrants who followed the law to come to this country and become citizens, I appreciate President Trump's effort to secure our southern border. In Ohio, our citizens are dying every day from fentanyl that is smuggled through the border. We must support President Trump's push to build the wall and help end the fentanyl epidemic."

Mayor Crystal Ruiz (San Jacinto, CA): "@RealDonaldTrump @POTUS is fighting. #BuildTheWall #AmericaFirst."

City Councilman Paul Walker (Manistique, MI): "Attention @TheDemocrats its time to put our Nation's border security above politics → @FUND THE WALL → @SenSchumer @SenStabenow @NancyPelosi @SenGaryPeters #FundTheWall #BuildTheWall #TrumpShutdown. Season Greetings @realDonaldTrump don't give in on #BuildThatWall! Your supporters are depending on you to secure on our borders. #BorderSecurity."

Mayor Hal Marx (Petal, MS) Mayor Hal Marx: "The GOP caving on funding the Wall has energized the conservative base like nothing since the #TeaParty in 2010. I hope this fight reminds Republican voters that we don't need more squishy moderates, we need true conservatives! #BuildTheWall."

Mayor Troy Edgar (Los Alimitos, CA): "Thanks President @realDonaldTrump for standing firm on Border Security! There are many here in California that appreciate your efforts and understand your negotiation approach to reaching a deal with Congress."

Mayor Dennis Kintigh (Roswell, NM): "As the Mayor of a City near our southern border and as a retired FBI agent I fully support the President's effort to secure our borders. I hope Congress will work with the Administration to protect the safety of all Americans."

Mayor John Giles (Mesa, AZ): "All of us in elected office have the fundamental duty of passing a budget and keeping the government running. There should be bipartisan dialogue and compromise in DC that avoids a shutdown, while approving fiscally responsible border security. @WhiteHouse @SenSchumer."

Sheriff Sam Page (Rockingham County, NC): "I support President Trump in his efforts to work with our Congress to fund the Border wall and Border security initiatives. A border wall from a public safety perspective provides a barrier to protect America from Drug traffickers, Criminals and others that choose to harm our American citizens."

Sheriff Thomas Hodgson (MA): "The people of our nation and the Sheriffs who have promised to protect them and uphold our law cannot wait any longer for Congress to fund the wall and secure our borders so we can keep our neighborhoods safe from criminal illegal aliens. For decades, Congress has traded the safety and security of our citizen and legal residents, and undermined the efforts of law enforcement, by choosing to not act on comprehensive immigration reforms and border security in order to advance individual political agendas. Enough is enough. Congress must act now on the funding for the border wall. Failure to do so will confirm once again Congress Members' total disregard for families who continued to be victimized by criminal illegal aliens. Almost every day, someone dies at the hands of an illegal alien, and dangerous drugs keep pouring across our borders and into our communities. It's time for members of Congress to side with the American people. It's time for Members of Congress to protect the American people and help law enforcement make communities and neighborhoods safer places to live, work and raise a family. It's time for Members of Congress to put aside their political agendas."

Sheriff Darren Campbell (Iredell County, NC): “As the elected Sheriff of Iredell County which is located in North Carolina. I have over 25 years of law enforcement experience. I consistently everyday see the impact of illegal immigration and the crime that it can spawn for example just this week we arrested two persons who are here illegally they were arrested on trafficking in methamphetamine charges, this is only the most recent. I urge you to support President Trump in providing funding for the border wall and border security.

Background – Negotiating Better Deals For The American People

President Trump is negotiating fair and balanced trade deals that protect American industries and workers.

- President Trump negotiated a new trade agreement between the United States, Canada, and Mexico to replace the disastrous and outdated North American Free Trade Agreement.
 - Once enacted by Congress, the United States–Mexico–Canada Agreement (USMCA) will better serve the interests of American workers and businesses.

- USMCA will incentivize billions of dollars in auto and auto parts production in the United States and create a freer and fairer market for American agriculture.
- USMCA also includes the strongest-ever provisions on labor, environmental, digital, and intellectual property protections to reflect the realities of the 21st century economy.
- The President renegotiated the United States–Korea Free Trade Agreement to preserve and grow jobs in the American auto industry and increase American exports.
- The United States and Japan are set to begin negotiations on a United States–Japan Trade Agreement.
- President Trump is establishing a new trade relationship with the European Union (EU), working toward the elimination of tariff and non-tariff barriers to transatlantic trade.
- President Trump has established a Trade and Investment Working Group to lay the groundwork for post-Brexit trade with the United Kingdom (UK) and has notified Congress of his intent to negotiate a free trade agreement with the UK.
- This year, President Trump filed a withdrawal notification with the Universal Postal Union, launching a one-year negotiation to secure fair international postal rates for American mailers.
- President Trump has expanded market access for American agricultural producers.
 - Argentina has opened to American pork and beef, Brazil to American beef, Japan to lamb and Idaho chipping potatoes, South Korea to American poultry, and more.
 - The Administration authorized $12 billion to aid farmers affected by unfair retaliatory tariffs.
 - The Trump Administration has begun the process to expand the sale of E15, or gasoline containing 15 percent ethanol, to year round.
- Under President Trump, the United States will no longer accept bad trade deals and unfair trade practices that harm American workers and industries.
 - One of the President’s first actions after taking office was withdrawing the United States from the terrible Trans-Pacific Partnership, which incentivized outsourcing.
 - In 2017, the Administration oversaw 82 antidumping and countervailing duty investigations.
- President Trump is holding China accountable for its unfair trade practices, such as the theft of intellectual property, by imposing tariffs on $250 billion in Chinese goods.
 - Following President Trump’s successful meeting with President Xi in Buenos Aires, both agreed to conduct negotiations over 90 days to address the United States concerns.
- American steel and aluminum jobs are coming back following President Trump’s tariffs to protect domestic industries that are vital to national security.
- President Trump imposed tariffs to protect American-made washing machines and solar products that were hurt by import surges.

You can find more information on the Historic Results of President Donald J. Trump’s First Two Years in Office here. You can find more information on USMCA here. You can also find additional information on trade here.
